

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY NEWSLETTER

CPYRGHT

NAME SIX TRUSTEES TO BOARD

Six new members were elected to the University's Board of Trustees at the Board's June meeting.

They are: Mortimer M. Caplin, former Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service and presently a Washington, D.C., attorney; S. Dillon Ripley, Sc.D '66, Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution; Melville B. Grosvenor, LLD '59, President and Editor of the National Geographic Society; David M. Kennedy, MA '35, LLB '37, LLD '65, Chief Executive Officer of the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust Co., Chicago; Jeremiah Milbank, Jr., New York investment management executive; and Dr. Harry F. Dowling, M.D. '31, head of the Department of Medicine at the University of Illinois (alumni trustee).

James O. Wright was re-elected as an alumni trustee.

GW TO STUDY URBAN PROBLEMS

GW will participate in a national program aimed at solving community problems through the use of college and university talent.

GW's role will include conducting a series of institutes for training volunteer teachers and others in the problems of city children.

The program is financed by federal and city grants.

MED SCHOOL GETS $59,128 GRANT

The School of Medicine has received a $59,128 grant from the John A. Hartford Foundation, Inc., New York, to continue a study on the body's natural defense mechanisms to certain chronic diseases.

A two-year study will be under the direction of Dr. Robert C. Parlett, Professor and Chairman of the Department of Microbiology.

During the past three years, Dr.

Parlett and his research staff have been mainly concerned with determining the patterns of specific antibody responses to tuberculosis infections and disease.

GROUND BREAKING SET FOR CENTER

The official ground breaking for the University Student Center will be held during Homecoming Weekend, November 11-13.

The building will be located between H and I Streets, on 21st.

Old buildings in this area are now being vacated. A special demolition ceremony, conducted by students, is scheduled for October 3.

HOST MAJOR SUMMER INSTITUTES

GW hosted a wide range of summer institutes this year.

Programs included a top level conference on taxes and computers cosponsored with the American and Federal Bar Associations; a training course for 65 physicians assigned to the Food and Drug Administration; an art education course for high school teachers co-sponsored with the National Gallery of Art and supported by a $75,000 grant from the U.S. Office of Education; and an institute for foreign students who will be studying on American campuses (co-sponsored with the Agency for International Development).

Dr. Carl McDaniel of the School of Education conducted a three-week Workshop on Career Information for guidance counselors from the D.C. School System.

ANNUAL SUPPORT GOAL EXCEEDED

The 1965-66 Annual Support Program has ended with preliminary totals indicating that the $300,000 goal has been exceeded. A record numbers of donors participated.

OW LAUNCHES MAJOR EFFORT TO ANALYZE GOV'T POLICY ISSUES

The University has launched a major effort to assist government officials in defining and analyzing important policy issues.

Named to direct the program is Dr. Louis H. Mayo. He has been appointed Vice President for Advanced Policy Studies by President Elliott.

For the past six years, Dr. Mayo has been Dean of the Graduate School of Public Law.

"We feel that the University must become a national center where the complex problems facing society can be analyzed in a multidisciplinary setting," Dr. Elliott said. "This is a particularly appropriate mission for a private university located in the Nation's Capital, where the major policy decisions are being made."

Internally, the new program will provide faculty assistance to — and draw faculty research capability from —the various schools and departments at the University.

It will also assist schools and departments in introducing innovational courses in the policy studies area.

An initial grant of $750,000, from the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, payable over three years, will support a program of policy studies in science and technology typical of those in the nation's space program.

DR. SIZOO DIES SUDDENLY

Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, Milbank professor of religion and director of the University Chapel, died suddenly on Aug. 28, 1966, in New York City.

Long considered one of this country's most prophetic preachers, Dr. Sizoo had been with the University since 1952. He was 81.

PR OFFICE WINS FOUR NATIONAL AWARDS

The University's Public Relations Office has received four national excellence awards from professional associations.

GW: The George Washington University Magazine was one of eight college publications honored this year by the Educational Press Association of America at its annual convention in Miami Beach. Over 700 college publications were entered in competition. The magazine received first prize for layout.

The magazine won the Eleanor Fishburn Award for International Understanding presented annually by the Washington chapter of Ed Press.

The magazine also won a Special Mention from the American Alumni Council for its continuing feature series, "Resources for Understanding in the Nation's Capital."

Margaret Davis, AB '37, MA '41, is editor of the magazine, and Neil McKnight, AB '40, is the designer.

The University's News Bureau, headed by Director Bud Good, AB '61, was awarded a Certificate of Special Merit by the American College Public Relations Association at its national convention in Boston. The award was given for the News Bureau's program which supported a Symposium on Suicide conducted last October by the Department of Psychiatry.

Seven former GW students were featured in a special University exhibit during July and August at Woodward & Lothrop's downtown Washington

The seven, all former Time cover subjects, were (from left, top to bottom): Mrs. John F. Kennedy, AB '51; J. Edgar Hoover, LLB '16, LLM 17; Allen W. Dulles, LLB '26; George Romney, iberal arts student, '29 to '30; J. William Fubright, LLB '34; Paul Carlson, M.D. '56; and John Foster Dulles, LLB '12.

Dr. Elliott presents the Charles F. Kettering Award to Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff, chairman of the board of Radio Corporation of America, at a dinner and reception honoring the general.

SARNOFF URGES NEW PATENT SYSTEM

Speaking here this summer, RCA Board Chairman David Sarnoff urged a global patent system using satellite communications and electronic data processing.

He spoke to a public conference of the University's Patent, Trademark, and Copyright Research Institute.

General Sarnoff said that the "fragmented array of national patent systems . . . inhibits the swift and equitable worldwide distribution of patent benefits."

General Sarnoff received the PTC Institute's Charles F. Kettering Award for his "Meritorious Work in Patent, Trademark, and Copyright Research and Education" at a reception and dinner given in his honor.

President Elliott models his new ceremonial robe and cap. He wore it for the first time at the June Commencement ceremonies.

SINO-SOVIET INSTITUTE AWARDED FORD GRANT

The Institute for Sino-Soviet Studies has received a $350,000 grant from the Ford Foundation for additions to the faculty, research conferences, and analyses of the relations between the Communist and non-Communist blocs, as well as nations within the Communist sphere.

GW GROUP STUDIES "HEAD START" PROJECT

Project Head Start is the darling of the war on poverty. But nobody really knows whether it's doing any good. A GW study group will try to find out.

The University's Education Research Project has received a $31,000 grant from the Office of Economic Opportunity to study the effects of the Head Start program—to see if children under this program outrank or outshine children of similar backgrounds who have not had a "head start."

Dr. PARGET Dailey, research professor of education, heads the study group. He and his staff will test some 1500 children around the country to measure gains in language ability and the effects of the program on enrollees after they enter first grade. He will also develop materials for use in teaching language facility.

WARREN GOULD NAMED VICE PRESIDENT

Warren Gould has been appointed Vice President for Resources.

Mr. Gould served for the past two years as Assistant Vice President— Resources, and was Director of Alumni Relations from 1954 to 1957.

He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from George Washington in 1951 and 1955.

He has been Managing Editor of the Washington Board of Trade News and Director of Development at Lehigh University.

Mr. Gould's new position will cover the University's programs in alumni relations, public relations, and fund raising.

The George Washington University
Newsletter is published four times a year by the Alumni and Public Relations Offices of The George Washington University, 2000 H St. N.W.,
Washington, D.C. 20006.
It is entered as Second Class postage at Washington, D.C.

ELLWOOD A. SMITH
Director of Alumni Relations
EDGAR C. GOOD
Editor

SALLY ANN STEWART
Managing Editor
L. JACKSON EMBREY
President, General Alumni Association

CPYRGHT Approved For Release 2001/08/20: CIA-RDP70-00058R000300010040-3

Three members of the Administrative Staff ave assumed new positions at the University. eated, left to right on one of the new benches the yard behind Monroe Hall, they are: Euene R. Magruder, Dean of the College of Gen-ral Studies; Paul Bissell, Acting Dean of tudents; and Carl H. Walther, Assistant Vice resident for Academic Affairs. Dean Magruder as formerly Associate Professor of Business Administration: Dean Bissell will continue his position as Dean of Men in addition to his new duties; Professor Walther was formerly Professor of Civil Engineering.

UNIVERSITY NEWS NOTES . . .

.. President Elliott has been apointed chairman of the Universities Subdivision of the Major Firms Diviion of the 1966-67 United Givers fund campaign for Washington, D.C. He has also been elected to the Board f Directors of the D.C. Citizens for Better Public Education.

.. New officers of the General Alumni Association are: President, L. ackson Embrey, AB '37, LLB '49, LM '49; Vice President, J. Dallas $hirley, BS '36, MA '45; Secretary, Mrs. Lyn H. Clark, AB '54; and Treasurer, Reginald D. Barta, AB 58. MA '65.

.. Eleven faculty members received 25-year awards at the General Alumni Association's 1966 Awards Dinner, June 3). They are:

Charles S. Coakley, Professor of Ansthesiology; Paul Chodoff, Associate Clinical Professor of Psychiatry; Clarnce K. Fraser, Associate Clinical Proessor of Obstetrics and Gynecology; Forest K. Harris, Adjunct Professor of Engineering; Clarence R. Hartman, Asociate Professor of Preventive Mediine and Community Health; William D. arman, Associate Clinical Professor of Urology; Lawrence E. Putnam, Associate Clinical Professor of Medicine; Walter J. Romejko, Assistant Clinical Professor of Ophthamology; Louis Ross, Assistant Clinical Professor of Medicine; William J. Reinhart, Associate in Physical Education for Men, baseball and basketball coach; William L. Turner, Associate Professor of English and Asistant Dean of Columbian College.

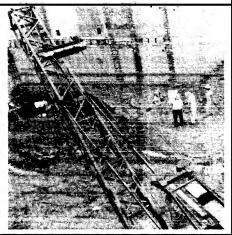

OOTBALL DISCOUNT OFFERED ON SEASON PASS

Alumni football fans can cheer for the Buff and Blue at a savings of $4.50 on the regular season ticket.

The $12.00 season ticket will be sold to alumni for $7.50, if they return their check and the application form (below) to the Athletic Ticket Office. Tickets for individual games may be purchased also by mailing in the application. The price for single tickets is $3.00.

The Colonials' first game, with William and Mary, will be held at George Washington High School Stadium, Alexandria, Va. All other home games will be played at D.C. Stadium. Homecoming will be November 12th, with West Virginia. Pepsi Cola will sponsor broadcasts of all GW games on WEEL, 1310 on the radio dial.

TICKET APP	LICATION FORM
Season Ticket	$12.00
Season Ticket (Alumni only, with t	$ 7.50 his form)
GAME	No. Price Remittance
Wm. and Mary (Oct. 1)	$3.00
E. Carolina (Oct. 15)	$3.00
Furman (Oct. 29)	$3.00
W. Virginia * (Nov. 12)	$3.00
Villanova  (Nov. 24)	$3.00
Postage a	nd handling .25
Total remi	Itance
ADDRESS	STATEase print)
Make checks payab The George Washin
For information call	676-6388
2027 H	Ticket Office orge Washington Univ. Street, N.W. gton, D.C. 20006
* Homecoming Ga	me

Construction continues on the Law Library which will adjoin Stockton Hall, home of the Law School. The library is the major part of a $1.45 million project which will also include the renovation of Stockton. The library will have open-stack facilities for 250,000 volumes, tripling the current space available.

FOUNDATION HONORS MEDICAL ALUMNUS

The Paul Carlson Foundation, initiated last November to carry on the work of medical missionary Paul Carlson, M.D. '56 (martyred in the Congo, November 24, 1964), held its first organizational meeting June 27.

The Foundation will focus for the present on a combined rehabilitation and medical center in the Ubangi area of the Congo.

Arthur Knudsen, Director of Facilities and Equipment Planning for Trans World Airlines, New York City, is Foundation president. Mrs. Lois Carlson is second vice-president.

ORDER NOW!! GWU CHAIRS . . .

cherry arms $33

$32

rocking chair $28

GAA ash tray $1.25

Order From:

The Alumni Office, 2000 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006

(make checks payable to the GWU General Alumni Association)

 Thanksgiving Day Game, 11:00 a.m.

HEADLINERS ...

- ... W. Tapley Bennett, LLB '48, recently appointed Ambassador to Portugal, received an honorary doctor of laws degree from Indiana State University, where he delivered the Commencement address.
- ... Elizabeth Bunten, LLB '54, has been named Woman Lawyer of the Year by the D.C. Women's Bar Association.
- ... Dr. John F. Clark, MS '46, was appointed Director of NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center, Greenbelt, Md.
- ... Susan Hamilton, AB '65, reigned as Color Girl during the U.S. Naval Academy's June Week festivities. She is pursuing her master's degree in education at GW.
- ... Comdr. Rita Lenihan, MAIA '64, is the new Director of Women in the Navy (WAVES). She began her Navy career in 1943.
- ... Jewell R. Sheppard, AB '59, was named to syndicated columnist Art Buchwald's list of the 10 most beautiful women in Washington, D.C.
- .,. Col. Thomas M. Tarpley, MAIA '64, commands the Second Brigade of the 25th Infantry, "Tropic Lightning" Division, which has "adopted" the Vietnamese "refugee" village of Ban Vang and is providing clothing, food, medicine and other necessities.

F. Ellwood Davis, BS '39, LLB '42, receives the Lettermen's Club "Hall of Fame" Plaque from former football letterman Timothy Swett. Mr. Davis, President of the Washington Board of Trade, was honored at the 7th annual Hall of Fame Testimonial Dinner, June 4. As an undergraduate he starred on the tennis team and was captain in his senior year. Mr. Davis is the 17th man named to the Hall of Fame.

- ... Stephen R. Woodzell, BSEE '33, was elected president of the Potomac Electric Power Company, Washington, D.C., in May. Mr. Woodzell is a member of the Governing Board of the General Alumni Association.
- ... James O. Wrightson, Jr., LLB '30, has received the Exceptional Service Award, the highest award that can be presented to a civilian employee of the Federal Government. For the past 20 years he served as Chief of the Military Affairs Division of the Directorate of Civil Law, Office of The Judge Advocate General, U.S. Air Force.

NEW SCHOOL NAMED FOR ALUMNAE

When Mildred Green, AB '29, MA '35, died in 1956 she left a legacy of 37 years teaching and administrative service to the public school system of the District of Columbia.

In May, the D.C. Board of Education dedicated, in recognition of her accomplishments, an elementary school bearing her name.

The school is located at 15th and dississippi Avenue, S.E.

University Registrar F. R. Houser assist incoming freshmen during a new advance registration program which was conducted periodically this summer. The program gave new freshmen the opportunity to meet GW administrators and faculty informally, to receive morpersonal attention than is possible in the fall and to orient themselves with the campus and the procedures of the University.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY NEWSLETTER

VOL. 10, NO. 1, SEPT., 1966

Second Class postage paid at Washington, D.C.